

COALITION CABINET
FORMED IN GERMANY

Headed by Fehrenbach as Chancellor—Dr. Walter Simons Minister of Foreign Affairs.

BERLIN, June 21.—The make-up of the new German cabinet is as follows: Chancellor, Konstantin Fehrenbach; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Walter Simons (Democrat); Economics, Dr.

Carl Meißner (Banker); Transportation, Adam Stöcker (Clerical); Finance, Johannes Becker (Peoples' Party); Justice, Carl Heineke (Peoples' Party); Interior, Herr Koon (Democrat); Defense, Herr Geisler (Democrat); Food, Andreas Hermes (Clerical); Posts and Telegraphs, Johann Giesberts (Clerical); Treasury, Dr. Wirth (Clerical).

No appointment has been made to the post of Minister of Labor. Dr. Simons, the new Foreign Minister, a Democrat, is a jurist who was for a long time attached to the legal division of the Foreign Office. He was a member of the Peace delegation at Versailles.

ALLIES' COUNCIL ADJOURNS.

Will Sit in Brussels July 2.—Most of Questions Left Unsettled.

BOULOGNE, June 21 (Associated Press).—The Supreme Council of the Allies, after holding a three-hour session to-day, adjourned to meet at Brussels on July 2, leaving most of the questions on its programme undecided.

The problem of the German reparations was referred to experts, who will meet in Paris and endeavor to reconcile the conflicting viewpoints among the Allies regarding the division of the sum Germany is to pay.

UNIONS WILL APPEAL.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers

of America, with headquarters at No. 31 Union Square, announced after a conference of officials and attorneys that an appeal will be taken from the decision of Justice Adolph J. Rodenbeck of the State Supreme Court at Rochester, Saturday, granting a permanent injunction in the suit of Michaels-Stern & Co. against the union and awarding damages in a sum not yet determined for interfering with the business of the plaintiff.

The amount of damages sought is $100,000.

Buyways

Sister isn't half so proud of her shiny leather Hat Box as Brother is of his Carryall. It is true that the new Hat Box is much better looking in her eyes and much more useful. She can tuck in innumerable things besides hats. Brother is delighted with his new piece of luggage because in it he can take to camp all the extra things he wanted last year but couldn't get in his trunk.

He will start off for the Summer with his special treasures neatly rolled up in the carryall, his stray bundles safely stowed in its capacious pockets.

These carryalls were designed for steamer rugs, but they will be used by many families that do their travelling by land this year. The carryall is made of brown luggage canvas bound in leather, a flat piece to be rolled up to any capacity, with leather straps and a handle. It is just the thing to carry bulky top coats, raincoats and umbrellas. Pockets and straps protect smaller articles.

The luggage department is the most romantic corner in the store. Here one gazes at outfits for motorists and campers—trunks, bags and boxes—all the conveniences for travelling to the ends of the earth, or week-ending in Jersey. The season demands luggage and a change of scene.

PLATINUM
12 Fine Diamonds, $155 up
22 Fine Diamonds, $285 up

LAMBERT BROTHERS fulfil promises. They give a "square deal." They sell at low prices. They do not have so-called sales. Diamonds and gold and platinum are MONEY, and they are not sold at "reduced" prices. Lamberts maintain uniformly lower rates on account of their less expensive manner of conducting their business. They see to it that their customers as well as themselves profit. Their diamonds are "gems of purest ray." Because of the reputation of the House of Lambert of always selling good stones, many solitaire diamond engagement rings have passed out of their hands in the years that are gone. But their stock is never diminished, because new diamonds are continually flowing in.

Do you want more time to eat—?

Maybe you can't persuade your "boss" to open the office a little later each morning so that you can have your second cup of coffee—but—

Borden's Coffee condensed with Milk and Sugar is ready to serve by simply adding boiling water. It doesn't take a minute to get breakfast when your coffee's made.

Then, too, your cup is already "creamed and sugared", and in just the right way to make you want that second cup. Delicious, fragrant, steaming—ready in a second.
